

The ALPO website uses a third-party service provided by Microsoft for authenticating our users. This helps provide security and protects the privacy of our users.

To register for an ALPO website account, you will need to have an email address where you can receive the confirmation email that Microsoft will send you to verify your desire to create an account. The instructions below outline the steps that you will take to create your account.

1) From any page click the "Login" link (usually in the menu items or in upper right of the page). Next, click the "Sign In" button

2) You will be taken to the login screen provided by Microsoft. In the lower right, click the Sign up now link

3) In the User Details form that is displayed, provide just the email address that you want to use when logging into the ALPO website. Click the "Send verification code" button; leave the page open.
